Hail and ride instructions

The West (84) and East (85) branches of the Rolleston Direct services operate on a hail and ride basis. On Hail and Ride sections of the route (see map on page 1) you don't need to be at a formal bus stop to board.

You can wait at any safe, visible location along the Hail and Ride section, and signal clearly to the driver that you'd like to get on. Choose a spot where the bus can pull over easily, the driver can see you in time to stop, and is well-lit. If there is an existing stop in the Hail and Ride section (e.g. Brookside Rd) that is nearby to you, please use it – this will help bus drivers to spot you and keep the service running efficiently.

For afternoon trips, to disembark in the Hail and Ride section, you can press the bell at any time. If the bell is pressed but no official stop is near, the driver will find the next safe location to pull over to the curb.

If a 'hail and ride' approach isn't for you, please remember that the services still stop at all the bus stops that Route 85 has always used.
